Counseling Service Announced By Hulme, College Chaplain

Confidential counseling service for college students will be a new feature at Wartburg college this year, according to Dr. Hulme, assistant professor of Christianity and college chaplain.

Providing long-time need on the Wartburg campus, the college chaplain is now equipped with an office on the balcony of the Little Theater. His hours are from 5 to 6 p.m. on Monday through Wednesdays, 2 to 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays and 10 to 12 noon on Saturdays.

Well known for his work Dr. Hulme came to Wartburg from a successful pastorate in Columbus, Ohio, and received his doctorate in the field of counseling.

"The college chaplain is a pastor of the campus, is first of all a Christian," he stated recently. "The chaplain will enjoy talking with you. If you have any problems, just come to discuss, free feel to do so."

"The chaplain is also a counselor," he continued. "It is good to have help in our problems and Betty will sing soprano and Berneice alto in the a cappella choir this year.

For the past three years before coming to Wartburg, Dr. Hieber was acting head of the music department at Baker University, Lincoln, Neb.

Miss Snyder received her degrees from St. Olaf college and the University of Minnesota. She was born in Waverly, Minn., before coming to Wartburg in 1943.

Prof. Snyder, head of the home economics department, has taught economics here since 1947 after teaching in a number of colleges, the last one being Kansas Wesleyan. She holds a master of arts degree from Teachers college, Columbia university.

Miss Agnes Langrock, new instructor in music, is a young woman for women, is a graduate of the Iowa State Teachers college and has been teaching in the high schools of the state. Her previous education to the faculty is Edward C. Breitenbach, instructor in modern languages, who very recently returned from duty in the allied military government of Germany.

New Year Poses Query

What will we do this year? This is the question that faces everyone at Wartburg, whether he is a former student or a freshman just beginning his college career.

To all of us there lies a task which we must fulfill in order to make this year a success. The task for each one will be different, but added all together they mean the advances and accomplishments of Wartburg for the school year 1949-50.

The last years at Wartburg have been marked with distinct advancement and prestige. Two years ago we celebrated the acceptance of our college to the standards of North Central accreditation. Last year we saw the beginning of a new building and development program that promises to give Wartburg the plant facilities of a truly fine institution.

However, colleges are made not only of buildings and money and accreditation. Each college means more than anything else, the sum total of the efforts of each student, faculty and administrative member. Along with the new buildings must go new ideas, along with each new contribution must go a plan to use it most effectively, along with each new accreditation must go increased zeal in academic subjects so that we may guarantee our worthiness.

To make Wartburg ever greater and finer—that, besides our own personal ambitions should be the goal of everyone attending Wartburg this year. To insure further advancement the coming few years must be surpassed in order that the momentum of development may be pushed to even greater heights.

Let us work this year so that we may be honestly proud of our accomplishments and proud of Wartburg. If this is done, we can be sure that Wartburg will be proud of us.

Political Pageant

Tito Loan Unwise

by Claude Greling

In the past few weeks while reading the daily newspapers I have with increasing alarm run into the name of our Secretary of State, Dean Acheson. And some of his actions as Head of the State seem to me unjustifiable.

First, he was linked with the ill-reported government of Wuhan, the capital of the United Nationalist China. That document, it seems to me, was a rather foolish attempt to explain the present political and most serious diplomatic blunders in the history of our foreign policy. It was open admission of a lack of vision and of a waste of the taxpayers' money, some five billion dollars, which were expended in the name of international relations.

Today, Dean Acheson faces the nation as an ardent supporter of the Chinese who have been loaned to communist Premier Tito of Yugoslavia. He argues that since Tito is an ally of the Kremlin, he must necessarily be our friend; and that, therefore, we owe him all the help we can give him. According to Acheson, these dollars will help Tito to maintain his independence from Moscow, and thus to become a close ally of the West.

It seems to me that Mr. Acheson has overlooked an all-important fact, namely that Tito has never declared himself to be our friend. In addition, he wants independence from the Kremlin, he has repeatedly stated that he does not want a communist regime in Yugoslavia, and that under no circumstance will he come into conflict with the West on ideological matters. It appears to me that those are rather clear words, and that most dimensions of a world bank loan would be more than foolishness, it would be almost madness.

He is evidently trying to exploit his rather unique situation, insofar as he is only ruler of a continental country he opposed to the rest of the world by the Kremlin. It seems incomprehensible, however, that our Department of State has succeeded in the fact that Tito has broken with Stalin to the conclusion that he is about to become a democratic socialist. This is a case of does not run with the pack no reason why we should shun him with the sheep.

With Many Things New

'Cap' Counselor Set

By Marianne Schmidt

Introducing the Rev. William Hulme, the only professor on campus with a new job, a new degree, a new house AND a new baby—

And that brings us to the new degree. His recent study at the University of Illinois was for him a career in the doctor of psychology in counseling. He is especially well fitted for the chaplaincy, which is to include student counseling.

And that brings us to the new house, first of all, includes teaching five courses in the Christianity department and the position of college chaplain. He is especially well fitted for the chaplaincy, which is to include student counseling.

The new house, which is only several years old, he inherited from Dean of Students Ernest Osgood. The Hulmes will live in it quite early in the winter, the expenses of the women's dormitory.

Dale, also the name of the new baby, and his big sister Sally Katesen finds him quite acceptable.

The Ohio man, Hulme was born and grew up in Youngstown. He attended Wartburg's sister college, Capital University at Columbus, Ohio, where he became the seminary there in 1945. Unique among preseas, he took off the English or psychology major for one in psychology, as well as a B.S. degree. His interest in the science, however, was not very strong, as was his desire to study the evolutionary point of view. In college, since he played chess and piano, he was active in band and intramural sports.

Hulme says he "likes everything," and his wife's interests are much like his own. Besides their interest in science (She's a Capital graduate, too, with a major in psychology), these and some other people like musicals and movies, are their hobbies. They are "New York" fans, gardening, semi-classical and popular music, politics and so on. Besides

Prexy Jim Keller Gives Purpose Of Having Student Government

By Jim Keller

Student Body President

Students at Wartburg have again reached an all-time in numbers, and it is our desire that with it will come a desire to grow with the school. However, as enrollment increases, student problems also increase and demand more attention. These can be expressed and satisfied. To this end we dedicate student government.

As we begin another school year, it is important to consider the purpose and value of student government on a college campus. The purpose of student government is simple. It is the method of such consideration as is example.

Relationship Considered

First, in student-administration relationships will be considered. Just last year the problem of Thanksgiving vacation came up. The administration there was little need for a vacation and that such a vacation would interfere with the school calendar. The students, however, were in agreement that a school vacation was needed. The students, realizing that bitter resentment and gripes at the school calendar were of little consequence, but convinced that they wanted a vacation, proceeded to see if a calendar could be arranged which would allow for Thanksgiving vacation.

After a thorough study of the calendar they presented a plan leaving space for vacation to the administration. The administration was able enough to agree.

We are thankful that the Wartburg administration is willing to consider suggestions, right or wrong, whenever possible, to satisfy student wishes.

The other purpose of student government is to relate to student welfare and student activities. All the materials in the social room are the result of student work. Some of the social fairs, musical programs of the social calendar and many other functions are also parts of student government.

Student government is the medium through which student gripes and problems are presented, answered and solved, if at all possible. Without such an organization all decisions would be left to the administration, which would do its best, but in order to do its best it must have student thinking and student participation.

Yes, there is a purpose and a value in student government. It is for everyone and unless we all cooperate and heed student government correctly it makes its purpose will be lost.

If student government is given a chance by your constructive criticism and all-out support, sure enough its purpose will be realized. Above all, don't let student apathy defeat an active, worthwhile student organization. It is yours, what is going to become of it? Let student government for better "student life" be the keynote of the year.

According to the latest printing of "Webster's Collegiate Dictionary," a pipe dream is "a plan, hope or story as illusory or fantastic as a dream caused by smoking a cigarette."

Now, when this writer decided upon "Pipe Dreams" as the title for this column, he didn't know that he was following in the aged-old expression. On the contrary, this column of weekly writing will be the expression of one of the writer's favorite pastimes—just plain smoking, smoking results in a chipper, friendly and highly recommended book; exchanging news and views with a roommate or neighbor, and all that goes with the midnight tour in a college dormitory.

"Pipe Dreams" will be series of short columns with occasional quotations as well as the foolish prattling of this writer. In this space will each week appear one side of a college "bull session." o o o

One Wartburg professor seemed to have a special job about the relationship of a faculty member and student. He compared the teacher with a commander and the student with a passenger.

It follows according to the professor that the teacher is not responsible for getting the passenger on the train, but for providing service once the passenger is on board.

Advice to freshmen—get on the education train. Listen to the conductor when he yells "All aboard" and bow bow bow your head.

o o o

Talk of the ability of erecting a memorial to Fred Neumann, Wartburg senior who lost his life during the past summer in a drowning accident on the campus the past few weeks. Pipe Dreams believes that the most logical memorial to a fellow who loved the outdoors and enjoyed hunting and trapping activities would be in his favorite field—radio.

Speaking of Fred, why is it that the most inspired and ambitious students are so few and far between? Maybe it's because with the present circumstances can become so much more valuable in the traditions of a place.

North ballers give a vote of thanks to Bill Biedermann, who was a high and Associate Professor for the humor of his dwelling while welcoming new students last week.

Freshmen To Decide Grid Season

By Adam Meidinger

As the freshmen go, so go the Wartburg Knights. That pretty well sums up the picture as far as the 1949 gridiron season is concerned for the charges of Coach Melvin C. Nelson.

If the new crop of unpredictable freshmen come through, and there is every reason to believe that they will, then Coach Nelson may expect to have a successful season.

Tonight the Black and Orange open the season with a non-conference game against the LaCrosse State Teachers at LaCrosse, Wis.

Last year, the Indians started their season with a 60-0 win in the first eight minutes of play before the Nebraskans settled down to outshine the Teachers the rest of the game.

Thinkers Look Different

Things may be different tonight. The Knights have more experience and look better than they did last year.

"It is up to the freshmen," said Nelson. "They are unpredictable. If they can come through, we will be O.K.; otherwise, we'll have to watch."

This was to have been the year for the Knights. They finished last season in second place in Iowa conference competition.

Only three men were lost through graduation, but the unexpected loss of six athletes has cut down the chances tremendously. Nelson lost the services of Art Klein, Fred Sauerhoff, and Roger Weissenberg, who did not return to school; Paul Bruns and Max Kist, who are attending school, but did not return for football this fall; and Lloyd Mays, who lost a leg this summer as a result of a motorcycle accident.

Newcomers Impressed

Nelson has been very much impressed by the spirit of this year's squad. It is exceptionally good and is a strong factor to be considered in winning or losing a ball game.

Among the outstanding freshmen of whom mention is to be expected are Bill Brown, Waverly tackle; Joe Matous, Waterloo back; Vasiland Koch, Summerian end; and Bob Soil, Tipton center.

Right behind those boys, but are not to be overlooked, are backs Ed Riedel, Alton; Eric and Jim Upton, Waverly. Nelson also has high hopes in a couple of big tackles, Merle Meyer and Bill Stoen, and in the two newest students, Dean Price and John Halston, also look good, but are behind.

"B" Games Scheduled.
In order to give more boys an opportunity to gain valuable experience, five "B" games are being played this year. The first will be against Mason City Junior college on October 14.

Average weight of the Wartburg football team is 185 pounds with the starting back-field averaging 170 pounds.

Knights will be playing from behind both ends with formations. Nelson has probably use a two-team system, but not one on defense and the other on offense, as he did last year. Instead, he will probably use the one squad and then the other in both offense and defense.

Red Wing Starts

The Red Wings starting lineup for tonight's encounter will find Edson Reed and Waldo Plate at ends, and Lynn Brown at fullback at the tackle positions. Ray Meyer and Otto Zwanziger holding the punting post, and Marshall Becken at quarterback.

In the backfield, Stan Wright will be the quarterback. Joe Matous and Lynn Brown will be the back spots, and big Ervin Hansen, the team Express, at fullback.

Game will be broadcast over KLCKX, LaCrosse, 1440 on the radio dial.

Knights huddle up before tonight's opener against La Crosse. Teachers are Head Coach Nelson, assistant Alex Biederman and Farney Opperman and players Waldo Plate, Marsh Becker, Lynn Brown, Harold Wilshire and Paul Olson.

From the Sidelines

By the Spectator

Wartburg's opener today with La Crosse State Teachers college will be an indication of the Knights' chances in Iowa conference competition. Another warm-up game with Winona Teachers next Friday will set the stage for "Nellie" Nelson's gridiron's attempt for another title. The Knights will again confront the Knights with seven conference games scheduled, more than any other team in the conference.

Coach Nelson reports that he is still experimenting to find a winning combination. The team does not have the depth that caused him to field both a defensive and offensive team last year. Offensively the Knights will depend on Hansen, Wernes, Brown and Matous. Passing attack has looked good with Reeg and Plate at end. The team will have been shifted out and after a few games in the conference.

National Picture Action-packed

Nationally, 1949-50 promises football fans a thrilling, action-packed high-speed brand of play with the two-team system becoming more widespread. The emphasis will be more on high scores than on unscripted games. This should be less puntin' and more "Let's kick it off" with more running and scoring. Use of the T formation will increase; however, a blend of the T and the single wing is being incorporated by many schools.

Teams to watch this fall will be Notre Dame and Michigan along with Ohio State, Southern Methodist and Southern California. Minnesota, Ohio State and Northwestern promise to be strong in the Big Nine. Oklahoma A and M and Oklahoma promise to take the Missouri and Big Seven conference titles with Mississippi State and Mississippi A and M also showing up in the stiff competition. Players to watch this year will be Don Walker of Southern Methodist, Site of Notre Dame, Justice of North Carolina, Marquette of Northwestern, Nostomias of Minnesota and Walter of Michigan.

Spectator Announces Contest

Prizes will be awarded to the person with the best act of scores, and a grand prize will be awarded at the close of the football season. Winners will be announced in the TRUMPET issue following the contest.

18 Year Olds To Register On Campus

College and university students who become 18 years of age after the school term starts need not return to their homes to register under the Selective Service Law, Director Brig. Gen. Charles H. Grash said today. They may register at the local board or other registration place most convenient to them, as may others when they reach the age of 18.

Mrs. Mattie Harms, assistant registrar, was appointed this week by President C. H. Becker to serve as registrar at Wartburg for students who attain the age of 18 years during the current year.

Law Requires:

"The law requires registration of all young men—with very few exceptions—with five days after their 18th birthday," General Grash said, "but there is no provision for those who attain the age of 18 years of registration at the place of residence. All the young men has to do is present himself at the local board or other registration place designated in that particular area most convenient to the place he happens to be living at the time."

The registration process is simple and requires only a short time. The data thus gathered will be used to keep track of the community he terms his home and which has jurisdiction over him."

When the registrant has a permanent address, his permanent home address should be given to registration officials.

General Grash said, "For that reason, those in the places with which the registrant normally identifies himself and at which he would wish to be classified."

General Grash:

General Grash pointed out that there is no liability for service under the Act until the age of 19 is reached, and that no organization has the right to require anyone to register at 18.

"The law is specific," he said, "and provides severe penalty for failure to register."

General Grash added that the law is also specific in its requirements concerning obligation of a registrant to keep his permanent address up-to-date. If he moves or informs us of any change in his address—where he may be reached by mail, that is—it should be done in his status under the Act.

"That applies after the registrant becomes 20, as well as before," General Grash said.

It is felt that college and university students, as well as other registrants, should not move without giving the board a forwarding address when they leave their homes. There is no form for this. It may be done by mail or personally appearing at the board office."

Kappa Delta Kappa Elects New Officers

Herbert C. Englehardt, director of public relations, was chosen by unanimous vote.

Robert Kamper, sophomore from Arlington, was elected president of the Wartburg hall dormitory council at a meeting held in the women's lounge on Monday evening.

Elected vice-president was Helen Gillemeyer, sophomore, while Ruth Meyer, also a sophomore, will handle the duties of secretary-treasurer. Positions selected were Lois Stoltz and Jean Wegman, first floor; Dorothy Siegel, second floor; Mildred Beeler, third floor; Barbara Schmitz, third floor; and Phyllis Beekman and Marian Peterson, fourth floor.

Mission Club Holds Year's First Meet

Initial meeting of the Mission Fellowship group was held Tuesday evening in Luther hall. Officers elected recently by this newest organization on campus are John Bowman, junior, president; Ralph Tews, sophomore, vice-president; Katherine Mueller, sophomore, secretary, and Don Flemer, sophomore, treasurer.

Meetings of the group will be held twice monthly, a basic meeting being planned for the first Tuesday and outside speakers invited for the third Sunday of each month. First speaker will be Rev. Dr. Richard L. Herder, of Twin Lakes, Minn., who will speak Sunday, Sept. 25, concerning his mission work in New Guinea.

Sept. 25 has also been set as the date when freshmen interested in mission work will be admitted to the club.

Chi Rho Elections Held On First Meet

Elections of the executive committee of Chi Rho pre-baccalaureate society on campus were held during the first meeting of that organization last Sunday afternoon in City Methodist, as announced by Marvin Herder, adviser.

Richard Bahr and Kenneth Krueger, seniors, were chosen vice-president and secretary-treasurer. Paul Schmitz, senior, was elected head usher. The faculty advised will be chosen at the October meeting.

Meetings of the group will include an outside speaker for the next meeting and a field trip to Dubuque in November. Chi Rho might be bought from Herder at any time.
